UPCOMING EVENTS

BCAT Show: Spiritually Speaking! You can participate!

Our church will be featured in the November episode of the series Spiritually Speaking. This purpose of the show is to teach people about all the different kinds of religions that are practiced in Burlington, and a different group is featured each month. The show is produced by Rabbi Susan Abramson and she chose our church for the November episode.

We need people to talk about everything from our history, to worship, music, missions, our being ONA, our involvement with People Helping People, Crafters for a Cause, our church governance along, with how we are funded, Christian Education, Team Awesome, and more! If you can think about an area of the life of our church that you'd like to speak about, please let Pastor Angela know that you want to participate. She will give you more details and instructions. We will be doing the filming on Saturday, Oct. 22nd, starting at 12:30pm. You need to be available that afternoon to come and be recorded. The more people we have to participate, the better!

Rev. Angela Wells will hold Pastor Hours at True North Coffee Shop, 204 Cambridge Street, Burlington on Tuesdays 4-6pm and Thursdays 9-11am. Swing by for coffee and conversation!

COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING WORSHIP

To keep Coffee Hour vital and sustained for the coming year, coffee hosts are needed! Please contact Jane Raymond at 781-272-9647 to signup and be trained. After all what would worship be without coffee and conversation!

Do you love to sing? Do you have friends who love to sing? We're looking for some new choir members. All voices are welcome, especially tenors and basses. You do not need to read music. The only requirements are a love of singing and availability for Wednesday evening rehearsals and Sunday morning services. If you're not sure, you're welcome to give it a try before making any commitment. For more information, see Joe Stoddard or email music@uccburlington.org.

CRAFTING FOR A CAUSE Join us Wednesdays at 1pm

During the Wednesdays in October C4C will be meeting in the Ed building at 1pm to make items for the Fair. Below is a list of items we will be working on if you want to come:

- Christmas tree decorations made out of beads
- stained glass window hangings
- decorate a wooden picture frames and wooden bowl with shells
- wine cork decorations

You may also bring in different items to work on!

BURLINGTON PANTRY NEEDS!

The red Wagon rolls the last Sunday of each month with specific items our local Burlington pantry needs to keep on the shelves. Please bring the following items to worship on Sunday

OCTOBER 30th:

ready-to-eat soups (beef, chicken, chowders, chili, etc.)

salad dressing

100% juice

Selling Pumpkins for the food pantry!

St. Mark's will be holding a Pumpkin Patch again this year. Proceeds from pumpkin sales will go to the Burlington Pantry.

Remember to purchase local for a good cause!!

FALL FAMILY FAIR-NOVEMBER 5th

New to the Fair this year: The Kids Fair!

Kids Fair will be held in Skelton Hall with games, pizza, juice & more.

Tickets are purchased for games & food at the Welcome table at the Main Fair.

The child receives a punch card.

There will be individual games like: ping pong bounce, ring toss, grab the donut.

For each game completed, child gets their card stamped.

When they are finished with the kids fair they will take their card back to welcome table to redeem & for prizes.

Also the dinner at 6PM is featuring meatball, sauce & bread generously Donated by the Chateau! Get your tickets now, it's sure to sell out!

There are signup sheets at coffee hour or you can talk with Deb Raymond directly at

857-373-9156 or angelfoods@msn.com

(You can drop book donations to the church at any time.)

Mark your calendar and bring family, friends and neighbors.

It's sure to be a great day of fun and fellowship!

If you have costume jewelry to donate or gently used books for the FAIR we are collecting them now! Please bring them to the church whenever you can. See bins in the office area.
