Book Discussion Update!

A few folks have asked me what we're doing about the upcoming book discussions. I was also asked if we could please read The Book of Joy by Desmond Tutu and the Dalai

Lama. Our plan is to postpone our discussions about Christianity for the Rest of Us and When Kids Ask Hard Questions. Perhaps we will discuss them in the fall, so if you already started reading them, don't fret. But for now we will focus on something we all need, joy. Our Zoom book discussion about The Book of Joy will be on Wednesday, May 13th at 7pm, so that should hopefully give you enough time to read it before we discuss it. We'll use the same Zoom link we use for worship.

Please let me know if you're planning to join us for the discussion.

Thank you all for your understanding and flexibility. -Angela

PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE AND OUR RED WAGON!

Since we are not meeting here at church and not able to collect items for our Burlington Pantry, I reached out to see what we can do to help our neighbors! If you go to the grocery store think of getting a few items below for our Pantry. On your drive home, you could swing by and drop off at the Pantry, 1 St. Mark's Road, Burlington Monday-Thursday 9:00AM-2:00PM , but later in the week they hope to have a separate donation center set up in the parking lot.

Here is a short list of items the pantry is asking for:

spaghetti sauce

cereal

instant oatmeal

vegetable oil

condiments: mustard, ketchup, mayo, salad dressing

100% juice boxes

dish soap

toothpaste

shampoo

ready-to-eat chicken soup

peanut butter

jelly

2lb bags of sugar

People are also welcome to donate money on their website, they are relying more than ever on being able to get things from the Greater Boston Food Bank where they still have to purchase some items from there and they need to rent a truck to go pick it up.

The website is: <https://peoplehelpingpeopleinc.org/>

Thank you for your support and stay healthy

Financial Assistance

If you or your family experience financial struggles as a result of COVID-19, the church is here to help you. We have a Deacons Fund which can be used for emergency financial assistance. Please reach out to Pastor Angela or Deacons Chair, Deb Glancy debglancy03@gmail.com if you could use financial support. All requests are kept confidential.

People Helping People

People Helping People has expanded its offerings to the community in light of COVID-19. If you or your family could benefit from receiving food through the food pantry, please contact the food pantry at 781-270-6625 or burlingtonpantry@gmail.com. In addition to non-perishable items, they have a wonderful array of fruits and vegetables. They're also offering lunch foods for families with children who normally receive their lunch at school.

Church Member Support

If you are elderly or immunocompromised or don't feel comfortable leaving your home, we have a team of church members who can run errands for you, including doing your food shopping. If this would be helpful for you, please reach out to Bobbie in the church office, or Pastor Angela.

Please continue your church pledges

The church is not insulated from the economic concerns regarding COVID-19. We will inevitably lose a lot of loose offerings because we won't be gathering for worship for so many weeks. That being said, the church still has fixed costs including utilities and salaries. Please continue your weekly or monthly pledges, if you're able. Checks can be mailed to the church If you're able to make an extra contribution, that would be much appreciated. Thank you so much for helping to sustain our community during this time of uncertainty.
